

RESUME

ROLAND R. KEHE

5621 Taylor Lane
Fort Collins, CO 80528
970.206.0335 W
970.206.0338 F

EXPERIENCE

Mr. Kehe's extensive knowledge of the University is unparalleled to any other. He has spent much of his career as campus architect for the University of Illinois. His work encompasses long-range planning, project coordination, building analysis and project conceptualization. In addition, Mr. Kehe is responsible for the selection of architects/engineers or other capital improvement consultants to be recommended for employment by the University of Illinois and the Capital Development Board.

2005 - Present

Joined JBA Incorporated

1981 – 2003

Campus Architect, University Office for Capital Programs, University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign, which is responsible for the coordination of the physical plant planning, construction of new buildings and additions to existing campus buildings including remodeling and site development. The work encompassed long-range planning, project coordination, building analysis and project conceptualization. Was responsible for the selection of architects/engineers or other capital improvement consultants to be recommended for employment by the University of Illinois and the Capital Development Board.

1971 – 1981

Associate Architect with the architectural firm of Unteed, Scaggs, Nelson, Ltd., Champaign, IL.

1968 - 1971

Project Architect for the firm of Fitch, Larocca, Carington and Jones, Chicago, IL.

Prior to 1968, Mr. Kehe was employed at Berger, Kelley, Unteed, Scaggs, Champaign, IL.

Education:

Bachelors of Architecture (Design)
University of Illinois, 1964

Registration:

Illinois

Professional Affiliations:

Association of University
Architects (AUA)